

Functional Analysis and Operator Theory South Africa 2024 Workshop

17 -19 March 2024, AIMS Cape Town, Muizenberg

After the two lowveld FAOTSA workshops, we opted for a change of scenery, and will be organizing the 2024 FAOTSA workshop at the AIMS Centre in Muizenberg, Cape Town, from 17 to 19 March, as part of the Siyakhula festival (17-22 March). We hope to welcome you to the third FAOTSA workshops in March 2024.

Plenary speakers:

- Cristina Câmara (Instituto Superior Técnico, Lisbon, Portugal)
- Eder Kikianty (University of Pretoria)
- Heinrich Raubenheimer (University of Johannesburg)
- Onno van Gaans (Leiden University, Netherlands)

Minicourse presenter:

- Mark Roelands (Leiden University, Netherlands)

Important dates:

- Registration deadline: 15 January
- Abstract submission deadline: 17 February

Registration: To attend FAOTSA 2024 please fill out the registration form on the workshop's website, indicated below. There is limited capacity, so please register as soon as possible.

Abstract submission: There is a limited number of 25 minute talk slots available. Please submit your abstract using the template to RONALDA BENJAMIN (ronalda@sun.ac.za).

Siyakhula festival at AIMS: FAOTSA 2024 will be part of the Siyakhula festival (17-22 March, <https://www.siyakhula.aims.ac.za>), which is organized to celebrate the 20th anniversary of AIMS. Participants of the workshop can also attend the activities Siyakhula festival and are encouraged to stay for the remainder of the festival.

Cost of participation: There will be no registration fee for the workshop nor for the Siyakhula festival and the lunches and (possibly also) dinners will be provided by AIMS at no extra cost. Participants will have to arrange their own travel to and from AIMS and their accommodation.

Postgraduate students and early career academics: We applied for funding to support participation of postgraduate students, postdocs and early career academics (< 5 years from PhD), and hope to receive a positive response in mid-December. Please do not wait with registration for an update on the funding situation, since there is limited capacity for the workshop. As in previous FAOTSA workshops, a minicourse will be included in the program.
