Open discussion on activities of the Stellenbosch University Category Theory Seminar 2024

Chaired by: Daniella Moore (Stellenbosch University)

DATE: Tuesday, 21 May 2024 | 12h10 – 13h00 SAST

VENUES:

- Room 1006, Mathematics and Industrial Psychology Building, Stellenbosch University
- Online

ABSTRACT

We invite all to join in a free reflective discussion about the seminar, where participants will be able to share their ideas on what they'd like to see in upcoming sessions. For example, there has been some interest in workshops running in these sessions that cover some specialised topics in category theory. Those interested in presenting such workshops, please come say what you would like to talk about. For those interested in attending such workshops, please come share what topics you are interested in learning about. The session will be chaired by Daniella Moore.

BIOGRAPHY

Daniella Moore is in her second year of her PhD studies at Stellenbosch University. Her focus is on near-vector spaces and multi-near-ring theory.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

All are welcome. It will be assumed that the audience is familiar with basic concepts of category theory.
